Who we are? <https://ijm.org.au/>

International Justice Mission is the global leader in protecting the world's poorest people from violence in the developing world. Our global team is at work in over 25 countries across Asia, Africa, Europe, Latin America, and North America. Together we are catalysing a global movement that will rescue millions, protect half a billion, and make justice for the poor unstoppable.

International Justice Mission Australia, established in 2014, partners with IJM Global to deliver justice programs overseas and grow the movement of Australians seeking justice for the oppressed.

Our Values

IJM is Christian, Professional and Bridge Building. Our Christian values are manifest not only as the source of our motivation but also in our culture and work environment.

The Position

IJM Australia began with a lot of goodwill, passion, and dedication which has enabled us to arrive where we are today. To support our next stage of growth and enable us to deepen our impact, we are seeking an experienced non-executive director with specific interests and skills in marketing, fundraising and public relations. An intimate understanding of slavery through either professional or lived experience in areas where slavery is happening is desirable.

Skills, Experience and Attributes

To be successful in this position you will have:

Given our aspiration to 'Be the leader who helps Australians understand the urgency of slavery and IJM's solution, compelling action, we need a board member with experience in:

- Providing guidance and support to executives on financial outcomes, plans and strategy
- Understanding best practice fundraising methods and the regulatory environment as it pertains to fundraising within NFP organisations
- Identifying and responding to current marketing and fundraising market trends
- Strategic design of a fundraising organisation with the ability to scale in future years.

You will also be

- Financially astute, strategic and innovative
- Experienced in fundraising and communicating a brand
- A confident decision maker
- Possessing wisdom and life experience.

What we offer:

- An opportunity to be part of impacting the world of the oppressed, injustice, slavery, and child exploitation.
- No pay, but the knowledge that you are making a huge difference.
